

The Winter Fashion Book Brings Paris To You

These are but two of the six hundred delightful, chic designs you will find in 'The Winter Fashion Book.' This superb collection of smart styles will provide inspiration for your entire winter wardrobe.

The very breath of Paris is brought into your home plus the practical character imparted by the master designers of America—the producers of Pictorial Review styles. Every design in 'The Winter Fashion Book' may be carried out exactly by using and do not overlook the fact that every Pictorial Review Pattern saves from one-half to one whole yard of material on each dress.

Pictorial Review Patterns

November Patterns now on Sale

Blouse 7438
Sleeve 7200
26 cents each
Ladies' Costume
7431—25c

Wright's

A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

COUNTY ATTORNEY IN EMBARRASSING POSITION

In a statement from W. H. Shearman, C. A. Day and W. H. Harris, members of the Liberty loan committee which canvassed the Eccles building recently for subscriptions, County Attorney Charles L. Farr is accused of improper conduct.

The statement, as given by the three representatives of the loan committee, is as follows, with the reply of Mr. Farr appended.

"Statement of what occurred when a Liberty loan committee, consisting of C. A. Day, W. H. Harris and W. H. Shearman, called upon County Attorney C. L. Farr at his office in the David Eccles building on the afternoon of October 15, 1917.

"Mr. Farr's door was open and he was sitting back in his chair with his feet on the desk and was talking, or about to talk, over the telephone. As we looked to see if he was in and started to enter the room he called out most discourteously:

"Go out in the hall until I get through phoning."

"We waited a few moments and then Mr. Farr called out:

"What do you fellows want?"

ORPHEUM TODAY

Matinee.....2:15 p. m.
Night.....8:15 p. m.

THE 13TH CHAIR
WILLIAM HARRIS Presents
BAYARD VEILLER
MYSTIC
HALL
DRAMA
YEARS RUN
48-ST
THE NEW YORK

Prices: 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50
SEAT SALE TODAY

ORPHEUM THEATRE

THREE NIGHTS OF HILARITY
SUN, MON., TUES.—
OCT. 28-29-30.

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR LAUGHS REGULARLY? SEE

KOLB & DILL
In the Cyclonic Musical Farce
THE
THE HIGH COST OF LOVING

Excellent Cast—Stunning Girls
Novelty Jazz Orchestra.

Entire Lower Floor.....$1.50
Balcony.....75c and $1.00
Gallery.....50c
Boxes.....$2.00

ADVANCE SEAT SALE TOMORROW

"One of us said:

"We are a committee for the Liberty loan," when Mr. Farr immediately broke in and said:

"Well, you won't get anything out of me."

"One of the committee then said:

"But Mr. Farr, the government must have money to prosecute this war," Mr. Farr replied, loudly:

"I don't give a damn whether the government gets money to run this war or not; when it comes to that I am a Socialist. There are men in this town who can afford to put it all up."

"There was little else said and the committee left."

"We declare that the above is a true report of the conversation that took place with Mr. Farr."

(Signed:) "C. A. DAY,
"W. H. HARRIS,
"W. H. SHEARMAN."

Farr's Statement.

County Attorney Farr, after reading the statement of Mr. Day, Mr. Harris and Mr. Shearman, said:

"The first part of the statement is correct. I had several matters that were worrying me and I admit that I was discourteous. I went to the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

"Editor Standard: I notice in the morning papers, that the county attorney is accused of unpatriotic utterances, to the Liberty loan committee, Messrs. Shearman, Harris and Day."

"I was worried over certain business matters, when the committee came to my office, and I realized as soon as they left, that I had been discourteous to them, and I went to each of the three places of business (not finding Mr. Harris in), and tendered to those I found my apologies for my abrupt way of speaking."

"I did use the word 'damn,' and I did not say that I did not care or give a damn whether the government got the money to run this war or not. There are many in this city who know my sentiments in regard to this war, expressed many times, and in many places, prior to the publication by this committee of what seems to me to be a malicious attack upon me, because of a supposed personal affront, for which I made due apology."

"I have stated time and time again that we were forced into this war to preserve the democracy of the world and possibly of this country, and that we would be into it until victory is won and democracy made safe."

"I realize that it takes an enormous amount of money to carry on this war, and I have contributed my mite, which in my judgment is taking that which belongs to my creditors, just at this time, and lending it to the government. However, I may be wrong as to that, but it was this sentiment that caused me to refer to those who could afford to loan money, while I, at the present time am very largely on the borrowing side." (Signed) C. L. Farr, county attorney.

Liberty Loan Day Observed By All Ogden

Liberty loan day is being observed in Ogden this afternoon by the closing of the banks, the city and county and federal offices and other business offices. The banks have not closed their doors, but they have closed to every one but the business of selling liberty bonds.

With reports from Washington that the response is far below expectations, the drive to raise the five billions of dollars that are needed, is being pushed with all the energy possible. So it is in Ogden. When the reports were received that many cities in other parts of the country had over-subscribed their quotas, the local committee determined to be included in the list. A house to house canvass among the business men of the city is in progress.

Ogden Making Big Drive.
It is figured that approximately $500,000 must be raised in Ogden before Saturday, before the city will reach even the minimum of $200,000 set. With practically all of the wealthy men subscribing all their cash to the cause, it is up to the working men and those of small means to raise the remaining sum. It is the earnest hope of the committee that Ogden will be classed among the cities at the top of the list when the final results are known. With some of the cities in the southwest running as high as 125 per cent over-subscribed, this will be a task, that if accomplished, will place Ogden at the front in patriotism, as she has shown herself to be in the past.

Realizing the great help the many employees of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company could give in the campaign, the management has sent a circular to each one of them, announcing that if they so desired, they could devote the entire day to work for the campaign. No specific instructions were given but each person is allowed to work in the way he sees fit. The district of the telephone company comprises all of Utah.

Employees Urged to Buy.
In addition to this, the employees were urged to subscribe for the bonds themselves, in any amount up to their total yearly salary. The company bought the bonds outright and will sell them to the employees at small monthly payments. This plan is practically the same as has been adopted by all the big corporations, except that possibly the amounts of subscription have been placed at a higher per cent for each individual.

Reports received at local headquarters from outlying districts would indicate that there is a seeming apathy in the campaign. Many of the farmers seem to think that there is no necessity of their subscribing to the loan, because it will be raised easily. This apathy, the directors of the campaign, come from over-confidence in the people of the nation. They have not awakened to the realization that in order to whip the kaiser, everybody must work.

However, it is thought here, as at

"THE FLAME" has a company of 40 players.

Theaters

AT THE OGDEN.

H. W. Peery, manager of the Ogden theater, returned from a business trip to Denver yesterday. While there he succeeded in booking several big pictures for the local playhouse. Among these are "The Honor System," "Babes in the Woods," William Farnum in "When a Man Sees Red," and Theda Bara in "Camille." These are four of the latest Fox releases. Manager Peery saw them in Denver, that being the object of his trip.

OGDEN CHAPTER OF RED CROSS TO ELECT OFFICERS

The election of officers for the Ogden chapter of the Red Cross will be held on Monday, October 29, at the city hall. The election will seat officers for the ensuing year, the positions to be filled being those of chairman, vice chairman, treasurer, secretary and members of the executive committee, of which there are five. Nominations for the positions will be made by a committee chosen from the membership of the chapter with Frank Briggs as chairman, and three names will be selected for each office. Following this printed ballots will be issued. The polls at the city hall will be open from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m.

The local chapter of the Red Cross has swelled from a membership of fifty persons a year ago to 1,400 today, and it is expected that the election will prove interesting because of the widespread participation of Ogden women in Red Cross work. This organization has come to be one of the largest and most effective in the city.

There will also be a business meeting on this date, and Mr. Oxley, director of the mountain division of the Red Cross, will be present and deliver an address.

Asthma Sufferers

I will send you a $1.00 bottle of my guaranteed Remedy Asthma, on trial. Send no money. Pay after taking. I satisfied. Remedy gives quick relief. Has cured many after everything else failed. Mention nearest express office. Address: George S. Hoover, Mfg. Pharmacist, Dept. 36, Des Moines, Ia.—Advertisement.

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

Read the Classified Ads.

LITTLE GIRL TO MAKE JOURNEY WITHOUT A GUARDIAN

Little Emma Amy Stubbe, four years old, started on the long journey from Ogden to Wilmington, Del., today, all alone. She is returning to her parents, after having